

How to leave a gift in your will to AFTINET

To help you leave a gift in your will, here is some information to guide you or your solicitor in leaving a bequest or updating your existing will through a codicil (a supplementary document attached to your will).

Types of bequests you can make in your will:

There are three main types of bequests you could make to AFTINET in your will. You could give a:

1. Pecuniary gift – a specific amount of money, assets or property.
2. Residuary gift – This gift is a percentage of the remainder of your estate, after your loved ones have been provided for and your expenses have been deducted.
3. Specific gift – specific assets or items of property (such as jewellery, shares, art works or real estate).

Suggested wording for your will:

The following suggested wording is provided for the guidance of your solicitor or trustee.

“I give to Australian Fair Trade and Investment Network Limited (ACN 097 603 131), of 7/321 Pitt Street Sydney NSW 2000, an incorporated association established under the Associations Incorporation Act 1984 (NSW), ___[a fixed dollar amount/a percentage/assets or items of property]___ of my estate, free of all duties and deductions to be used in its absolute discretion for its general purposes. I direct that the signed receipt of any authorised officer of Australian Fair Trade and Investment Network Limited shall be a full and sufficient discharge to my executor or trustee.”

Please note that to ensure your gift reaches us, it is important to use our full legal name (Australian Fair Trade and Investment Network Limited) and our Australian Company Number (ACN 097 603 131).

Distribution of your gift:

Your gift to AFTINET in your will can be distributed via bank deposit or cheque. Our account details are:
